not explaining it very well. As he explains it to me, as I mentioned before, this number came from a study done through the university to...

SENATOR BROMM: I don't care where it came from...

SENATOR THOMPSON: Right, I mean, I just...

SENATOR BROMM: ...I want to know...

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...they counted the minutes...

SENATOR BROMM: Okay.

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...they figured out whatever...

SENATOR BROMM: Okay. I...

SENATOR THOMPSON: So, in order to...what he's told me, for example, is in an area of the state where there's maybe a sparser population, and he would look at the numbers of kids that have been detained, he would give that...each of the probation off...divisions would be allocated, kind of as Senator Hilgert said, an FTE, maybe it's a half FTE in an area that doesn't have...

SENATOR BROMM: In a district? By district?

SENATOR THOMPSON: By district. By district.

SENATOR BROMM: Um-hum.

SENATOR THOMPSON: Every district has a chief probation officer, and they will be given part of this...they will get allocated...

SENATOR BROMM: Okay...

SENATOR THOMPSON: ...the hours.

SENATOR BROMM: ...let me...and that, that helps. Let me say that it's an area where there isn't that many juvenile cases and
